

GATE QUESTION ECE 2010 Q56

Question :

57. The question below consists of a pair of related words followed by four pairs of words. Select the pair that best expresses the relation in the original pair.

Unemployed: Worker

1. fallow: land
2. unaware: sleeper
3. wit: jester
4. renovated: house

Solution:

To solve verbal analogy questions, we first need to identify the relationship between the words in the original pair.

Original Pair: Unemployed: Worker The relationship here is: An Unemployed person is a Worker who is currently without work or not engaged in their primary function (working). It describes a state of being (lack of work) for a specific type of individual (a worker).

Now, let's analyze the relationship in each option:

Fallow:land

- Relationship: Fallow describes land that is uncultivated or left unseeded for a period to restore its fertility. This means the land is not being used for its primary purpose (cultivation).
- Comparison: This relationship is analogous to "Unemployed: Worker". Just as an unemployed worker is a worker not currently working, fallow land is land not currently being cultivated. It represents a temporary state of non-use for its primary function.

unaware: sleeper

- Relationship: Unaware means not knowing or realizing something. A sleeper is someone who is sleeping. While a sleeper is often unaware, "unaware" is a general state of mind that is not exclusively tied to being a sleeper. One can be unaware while awake. The relationship is not as precise or direct in terms of a state of being for a specific type of entity.

wit: jester

- Relationship: Wit is the ability to make clever and amusing remarks. A jester is someone whose profession is to tell jokes and amuse people. A jester possesses or demonstrates wit, but "wit" is a quality or attribute, not a state of being or a temporary condition of a jester in the same way "unemployed" is for a worker.

renovated: house

- Relationship: Renovated means restored to a good state of repair or made new. A house is a building. "Renovated" describes a condition or state of a house, but it implies an improvement or a completed action, not a temporary lack of its primary function.

Conclusion: The pair "fallow: land" best expresses the same relationship as "Unemployed: Worker" because both describe a state of temporary non-use or inactivity for the primary function of the second word in the pair.
